

Hazel & Hyde Educational Trainers
CASAC Re-Credentialing workshop

- ▶ Improve practical applications
- ▶ Explore personal values working with chemically addicted persons
- ▶ Gain insight to the importance of working with culturally diverse populations
- ▶ Examine individual morals and ethical issues
- ▶ Increase knowledge about working with special populations
- ▶ Gain insight to self barriers when interacting with clients
- ▶ Explore practical approaches to theoretical perspectives
- ▶ Understanding Mandated reporter

Training Services and more

- CBT
- Family Dynamic
- Clinical Documentation
- Group Counseling
- Domestic Violence
- Counseling Families
- Individual and group's
- Staff Development
- Counseling ethics
- Treatment planning
- Motivational Interviewing

and more

Modules for Initial Credentials coming soon
please check Hazel & Hyde
Educational Trainers at the OASAS website for further details
Operations # 0729

For information and Location Contact:
The Sharing Community

Administrator: Audrey Hyde
1 Hudson Ave, Yonkers NY
10701

Phone: 914-693-2626x237

Cell: 914-839-9522

Email: Audrey@thesharingcommunity.org

The program will begin November 7th 2017, evening workshops on Tuesday and Thursdays from 6:00 to 9:30pm. Saturday's workshop @ 10:00am to 3:00pm.

Services Offered

Initial credentialing program,
Re- Certification program
CASAC prep for exam
Staff Development

All workshops are by appointment only.

Thank you

Audrey Hyde, MSW CASAC
Administrator